1.0 Student Discipline and Attendance

1.1 Action

1.1.1 Motion 050 – Action on Expulsion Hearing 2024/25-08 – Mark Zeigler motioned to expel the student from the Yreka Union High School District for violation of California Education Code 48900 (m): “Possessed an imitation firearm. As used in this section, “imitation firearm” means a replica of a firearm that is so substantially similar in physical properties to an existing firearm as to lead a reasonable person to conclude that the replica is a firearm” and California Ed. Code Section 48900.7 (b) “For the purposes of this section, “terroristic threat” shall include any statement, whether written or oral, by a person who willfully threatens to commit a crime which will result in death, great bodily injury to another person, or property damage in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, even if there is no intent of actually carrying it out, which, on its face and under the circumstances in which it is made, is so unequivocal, unconditional, immediate, and specific as to convey to the person threatened, a gravity of purpose and an immediate prospect of execution of the threat, and thereby causes that person reasonably to be in sustained fear for his or her own safety or for his or her immediate family’s safety, or for the protection of school district property, or the personal property of the person threatened or his or her immediate family” for the current and following semesters with both semesters stayed with a behavior contract. During the “stay” the student will be allowed to attend Yreka High School. The behavior contract will contain these additional stipulations and or restrictions: The student will remain on campus, requiring check-in during lunch, no participation in extracurricular activities, no more than five tardies per semester, and attend a counseling program. Failure to successfully complete any part of this “stayed” order or violation of the behavior contract will result in the immediate reinstatement of the expulsion order and placement in the District Community Day School. The student is directed to appear before the Board of Trustees during the June 2024 meeting, in closed session, report on his progress, and request readmission to the district. The motion was seconded John Wetzig and unanimously carried.
